

Grace on Campus 2021-2022

Small Group Leader Blurbs: Women

Alyssa Suzuki (4)
kamalani.suzuki@gmail.com

Hello dear people! My name is Alyssa and I'm a fourth year studying public affairs and applied developmental psychology. A little about me: I enjoy holding big coffee mugs, going to farmer's markets, floral ice cream, and the beach.

My hope for small group is that we would together grow in our love for, and likeness to Jesus Christ. The present plan is to study the book of Genesis, with the aim of beholding our Creator with greater awe & humility as we learn more about His good design in creation. Would He be made much of as we care for, correct, and serve one another! I'd love to get to know you, so please don't hesitate to reach out.

Angela Zeng (4)
angelazeng09@gmail.com

Hello! My name is Angela and I graduated last year as an MCDB major. I'm currently doing clinical research in my gap years and am hoping to go into medicine. About me: I love hiking, watching kdramas, and reading manhwa!

My hope for small group is that we can cultivate a higher view of God and lower view of self and learn to love, serve, and encourage one another as we pursue Christlikeness together. I haven't decided what we're going over yet, but I'm leaning towards studying Ecclesiastes or Philippians and/or reading Christian books. Plans are flexible, so whether or not that interests you, feel free to email or FB message me - I'd love to get to know you more! c:

Ariel Chow (4)
achow12300@gmail.com

Hey! I'm Ariel, and I'm a senior stats/econ major! In the past three years of college, I have seen how easy it is to get distracted by fleeting things and get caught up in the troubles of the world. My hope for small group this year is that we would learn to (as ATD puts it) live life in light of the end of life. My plan is to study the book of Revelation, but more generally, to look at what the Bible says about topics like death, end times, and practically how we should live in anticipation of Christ's return. I hope that as we do life together, we can regularly challenge and encourage each other to evangelize boldly, pursue holiness, and grow in knowledge of and affection for our glorious Christ.

About me: My interests include jam sessions, bonfires, grass-sitting, and mahjong! Contact me if you're interested in joining! :)

Ashley Kim (4)
2000.ashleykim@gmail.com

Hello, friends! My name is Ashley Kim, and I am a fourth year Cognitive Science major with a minor in Asian American Studies. I enjoy reading (let's swap book recs!), writing poems, going on long campus walks, binge-ingesting mango sorbet, and cooking (down to try new recipes!). I also really, really love sheep and the color yellow!

My prayer for small group is modeled best in Ephesians 1:16-22—essentially, that we would be strengthened by the wisdom found in God and His Word, and that we would recognize how wonderfully and supremely Christ reigns in our daily lives. I plan to go through a book of the Bible, although I'm leaning towards either John, Romans, Lamentations, or Hebrews with prayer through selected Psalms and hymns. I hope that next year will be full of Christ-exalting fellowship, good memories, and lots of laughs! Please reach out — I'd love to cook you a homemade meal and get to know you!

Charisse Hung (3)
charisse.hung@gmail.com

HELLO! I'm Charisse (kinda like curry + reese because the h is silent) and I'm a third year from Portland studying applied math and stats. Some things I like are wushu (Chinese martial arts, think kungfu), driving with or without a destination, whiteboards, 3am hikes, and Frozen. For small group, I'm thinking of going through Acts to learn from the early church and study how the gospel spread. This may or may not happen (we can decide later lol), but my prayer is that we may grow in love for God and each other as we pursue Christlikeness. Feel free to stalk/contact me and let's hang :D

Charlotte Chan (Grad)
echan.charlotte.sl@gmail.com

Hi! My name is Charlotte, and I've just graduated as an MCDB major. For small group, I'm thinking about studying Jonah and/or going through a Christian book together. I'm pretty flexible and open to suggestions, but for sure, prayer and the gospel will be a big part of small group. It's my hope that as we're growing and learning how to adult together, that we can cultivate a greater dependence on God while encouraging one another towards spiritual maturity in Christ. I'd love to meet you so feel free to reach out!

Christine Chen (4)
chen.christine.22@gmail.com

hello hello!! My name is Christine, and I'm a 4th year Nursing major. I have a big heart for the kiddos, and my dream is to be a Pediatric ICU nurse post-grad! Some things I enjoy doing in my free time include making pour-over coffee, conversing in coffee shops, taking aesthetically pleasing photos with my iPhone, and watching beach sunsets.

This year in small group, my hope is that we would behold and savor Jesus Christ above all things. I pray that we would grow to love God and each other more! My plans for small group are flexible, but some ideas I have considered are studying the book of Hebrews, the attributes of God, and/or Christian contentment.

Please reach out to meet up even if you don't want to join my small group! I would love to get to know you over a cup of coffee (or boba).

Claire Li (4)
claireli@g.ucla.edu

Hi! I'm so happy you're thinking about joining a small group :) My name is Claire and I'm a senior majoring in Economics and minoring in Statistics and Education. I love Trader Joe's, food and exploring new restaurants, coffee, reading, live music, going on long drives, and movie nights.

My prayer for small group is that we will grow in our love and pursuit of the Lord and encourage each other to live Christ-centered lives. I haven't decided exactly what we will go over this year yet, and I want to learn more about you to see what would be most helpful! I would love to meet and chat with you so please don't hesitate to reach out :D

Esther (Yuki) Chan (4)
estherwanchan@gmail.com

Hallo!! I'm a 4th year Biology and Spanish Major from Davis, CA. I love badminton, stickers, crocheting and eating yummy food!

This year, I'm looking forward to potentially doing book club as a small group and praying through some Psalms! I would love any suggestions for books and am open to other ideas for SG :) My prayer for SG is that we would grow in our love for Christ as we learn how to practically orient our lives to be servants for His kingdom. I'm excited to share our lives with one another through His word and through prayer! HMU and I would love to chat!

Esther Foo (3)
efoo50@gmail.com

what up buttercup ( • ω • )

I'm Esther and I'm studying civil engineering (yay bridges & dirt). Things I think are pretty cool include: Jesus, spicy food, and you (¬‿¬).

Small Group Plan: In the beginning I'm hoping to go over some good old gospel and a couple Psalms and then hopefully dive into either Hebrews or Ephesians (but kinda undecided so if y'all got things you wanna go over we can do that too!). Overall my hope is that you grow in the knowledge of Christ through the word, prayer, fellowship, and personal circumstances! ☺(ò_ó♪

So if y'all got any questions or want a 'no pressure', 'no cost' chit-chat feel free to hmu (plz I'm lonely ☹_☹)

Jaclyn Chiu (4)
jaclyn.c.chiu@gmail.com

Hello!! My name is Jackie and I'm a fourth year studying Statistics. I enjoy doing a lot of things but some of my favorites are going to the beach, cooking, watching dramas, trying new tea shops, and having late night talks.

My prayer for small group is that we would all pursue Christ and live in obedience to His Word. This would include studying and memorizing scripture, encouraging and exhorting one another, and pointing each other towards Christ. I hope to go over Genesis and see how the gospel of Jesus Christ has been presented since the beginning of the Bible. If you're interested in joining or just want to talk, feel free to reach out to me!

Jenna Dachtler (3)
jadachtler@g.ucla.edu

Hi friends! My name is Jenna, and I'm a third-year Physiological Science major! I'm a socially-awkward, easily-amused human with an affinity for campus walks, sports, literary classics, boba runs, and peaceful mornings!

My greatest prayer for small group is that Christ would be honored as we spur one another on toward greater knowledge of, love for, and submission to our dear Savior. I pray that, by God's sanctifying grace, we would be built up in love for Christ and one another and that we would learn to carry out the one another commands together. I am considering covering Colossians (or another epistle) to help cultivate a higher view of Christ, a dependence upon the Lord in prayer, and a greater focus on the truths of the gospel. Please let me know if you are interested or just want to hang out! I'd love to get to know you!

Jenny Cheng (Grad)
chengjennyt@gmail.com

Hi, I'm a physiology graduate student and very grateful to lead a small group in GOC! My prayer for small group is that we would prioritize, pursue, and treasure Christ. I hope to deeply study Scripture together to learn more about God's perfect character while practically applying truth in thought, speech, and action and joyfully obeying biblical commands. No set plans yet, but we'll definitely pray with and for one another, study/memorize/meditate on Scripture, and enjoy time together that God providentially gives to us.

Let me know if you want to chat!

Jocelyn Tzeng (4)
jocelyn.tzeng@gmail.com

Hi hi hi! My name is Jocelyn and I am a fourth year pre optometry biology major! A little bit about me: I love beaches, sunsets, and cute cafes (gotta love my San Diegan roots), baking, music, vinyls and most importantly I love chatting and rambling about everything and nothing!

My hope for small group is that as we dive into His word, we can walk together in our lives, praying for and encouraging one another. No concrete plans as of yet, as I want to learn more about you to see how I can best serve you, but whatever we study I hope we can all be molded to be more God-fearing and loving young women!

Please reach out to me if you are even the slightest bit interested, I would love to chat and get to know you more!

Kayla Park (4)
kaylapark95220@g.ucla.edu

Hi! My name is Kayla and I'm so glad that you are checking out GOC and I'm excited to meet you! I'm a senior majoring in Public Affairs and minoring in Professional Writing. I really enjoy eating yummy food, watching movies, bullet journaling, and listening to Korean rnb music. I'm also from the 626 San Gabriel Valley area.

My goals for small group are to grow in love for God and to grow in love for one another. This year I'm thinking about studying different attributes or titles of Christ or what biblical womanhood is and looks like. But honestly, I am open to doing whatever might be most helpful for you and the other small group girls. I would love to chat with you about GOC, small group, or navigating UCLA. Feel free to contact me at kaylapark95220@g.ucla.edu! ☺

Lisa Kong (3)
lisakong@ucla.edu

Hit me up for your stain-removing needs! Applicable when you: (1) spill Kool-Aid all over your white shoes [pictured on left: Oxi-clean does wonders] (2) want to talk about Christ, whose blood is what washes away our sins :)

I'm a 3rd year studying mechanical engineering and geography. I get excited about giraffes, Taylor Swift album drops, couch naps, and painting my nails. For small group, I want to study the Bible in depth so that we may experience God's word ourselves (currently considering Sermon on the Mount or Philippians). We will work together on centering our lives on Christ amidst all that comes with being a college student.

I would absolutely love to get to know you, whether you're interested in my small group or not, so hunt me down through email/facebook/insta/goc and WE WILL HANG!

Maggie Yan (4)
maggie.yan414@gmail.com

What do you call a guy with no arms and no legs laying on the floor?

Hello! I'm Maggie and I'm a 4th year Computer Science and Cognitive Science major. I like to go to Asian grocery stores, try new food places, and watch Chinese dramas in my free time :))

If you join my small group this year, we will probably go over a Christian book and a couple of Desiring God articles. These plans are flexible, but my ultimate hope is that we can grow together in our knowledge and love for the Lord and for one another. I'm very excited for this year and I would love to get to know you guys! Come say hi (and ask me for the answer to the joke haha)!

Marissa Huang (4)
marissajhuang@gmail.com

Hey girlie! My name is Marissa and I am a fourth-year physiological science major :) I love getting up at the crack of dawn to scrub into surgeries, taking pictures of my food from every angle, and chasing waterfalls and sunsets! My favorite part of small group is being able to directly witness God's transforming work in the lives of dear friends and sisters as we spur one another to pursue Christlikeness daily. This year, as we pray through Scripture together, I hope that we may know God and fear Him, find rest for our weary souls, grow in our love for others, and be spiritually equipped to overcome trials of various kinds. I am so excited to meet you <3

Nicole Lam (4)
nicolekwlam@gmail.com

Hello! I'm Nicole and I'm a fourth year Statistics and Economics major! For small group this year, I plan to go through topics related to Christian living (and preferences of those who join), but I am still open to any other suggestions! I hope that we can grow together in Christ-likeness, and learn to love God and His people more as we encourage and uplift one another through His word!

Feel free to reach out to me via FB messenger or email and I would love to talk to ya! I also enjoy trying different desserts, painting, running, taking walks, and window shopping!

Samantha Kaeding (Grad)
skaeding12@g.ucla.edu

HELLO FRIENDS! I'm Sam, and I'm overjoyed YOU are checking out small groups! I majored in Psych and graduated summer 2021, but *technically* I am a part of the class of 2022 :D

My prayer for small group this year is to grow together in fervently and joyfully pursuing Christ-likeness in every season, denying ourselves, and deepening our humble dependence on our Heavenly Father. My tentative plan for SG is to strengthen the foundation of our faith by studying the attributes of our mighty and merciful God, and the beauty of the finished work of Christ by reading J.I. Packer's Knowing God + an epistle. I am 20000% open to suggestions!

Ultimately, my hope is that we can love, serve, pray, exhort, and bear with one another as we grow in Christ-likeness together <3 about me: I possess an undying passion for CHRIST, CORGIS, CONVOS OVER COFFEE, COOL FOODVENTURES, CHEESY MEMES, CRACKING UP AT EVERYTHING, CLASSICAL MUSIC + SINGING! (that includes cheesy memes about classical music).

I'm not living in Westwood this year (big sad), but I will be in the LA area on the weekends! Please don't be a stranger, and hmu if you have questions or if you just wanna grab coffee/boba/you name it and chat!

Samantha Man (4)
samanthaman11@gmail.com

Hi! My name is Sam and I am a fourth year studying Biology on the nursing track. I like swimming, bonfiring, bouldering, and trying new sports! My hope for small group this year is that we are able to grow in our understanding of and love for prayer as we pursue holiness and seek to imitate the character of Christ. I'm thinking about praying through the Psalms and also memorizing some of them as we go in hopes that we can find comfort and wisdom in these truths and also be vulnerable and honest with our sins. Feel free to message me if you want to talk more or hang out sometime!

Sarah Jeong (4)
icesarah789@gmail.com

Hi Peeps:) I am a 4th yr nursing major. First of all, yay for checking out SGs! It is undoubtedly one of the best decisions you will make in college for the amount of fellowship and spiritual growth you will have. This year I am planning to go through the whole book of Romans as it really hammers the doctrines of the Christian faith. As Martin Luther said, "Every Christian needs to know Romans word for word... and can never be read or pondered too much." Whether nonbeliever or believer, there is so much theology and application in this book, so I am excited to learn alongside you guys about God's grace and mercy, to ultimately present everyone mature in Christ (Colossians 1:28).

About me: I love portrait photography @gazeofasoul, feeding people homemade food, and watching Korean dramas:))) Contact me for questions and to meetup!

Star-Lynn Miller (3)
starlynn@g.ucla.edu

Hi hi! I'm Star, a third year English major and a first generation college student! I love to read, get good food and boba, play soccer, and do outdoorsy things all while slightly bullying my friends with love (translation: I'm sarcastic lol)!

This year I'm hoping to go through Ecclesiastes in an effort to grow together in Christ and understand His sovereignty over each of our lives. Ecclesiastes is full of how God has complete control over our lives and works through even the saddest of things. Ultimately, a small group is about growing together as sisters in Christ while pushing each other to grow closer to God and in righteousness! I'm excited to meet all of you, and if you are at all interested (even if just to hang out or play soccer), please reach out to me!

Tabitha Haskins (3)
tabithanoel113@gmail.com

Hello! My name is Tabitha Haskins and I am a third year Applied Linguistics major. A little about me: I love taking long walks, drinking hot coco, baking/cooking, reading, and anything artsy!

My desire for small group this year is to grow in wisdom and submission to the LORD -- filtering every aspect of our lives through the Bible -- as we go through the book of Ecclesiastes. I want us to be present in one another's lives, encouraging and edifying one another in love as we mutually strive towards Christlikeness. My prayer for each and every girl is that we would humbly embrace our femininity as godly women, serving with patience and diligence as we await the glorious return of Christ!

Sounds fascinating? Please reach out! I would love to talk to you and get to know you better :D

Tiffany Chang (3)
tiffany.c.chang10@gmail.co m
